writing to the Union President, stating the Employer's answer concerning the grievance. If, as a result of the written response, the grievance remains unresolved, the Union may refer the grievance to Step 3. Any grievance not referred in writing by the Union to Step 3 within ten (10) calendar days following receipt of the Sheriff's answer shall be considered waived.

Step 3. If the grievance remains unresolved, a meeting between the Employer and a Union staff representative shall be held to discuss the grievance. The Employer shall respond in writing to the Union stating the Employer's position within fourteen (14) calendar days following the meeting. If, as a result of the written response from the Employer, the grievance remains unresolved, the Union may refer the grievance to Step 4. Any grievance not referred in writing by the Union to the Bureau of Mediation Services within seven (7) calendar days following receipt of the Employer's written response shall be considered waived.

Step 4. The Union or the Employer may, within seven (7) days after the response of the Employer in Step 3, petition to the Bureau of Mediation Services for grievance mediation.

Step 5. If the grievance remains unresolved, the Union may within seven (7) calendar days after the response of the Employer, by written notice to County Administration, request arbitration of the grievance. The arbitration proceeding shall be conducted by an arbitrator to be selected in accordance with the "Rules Governing the Arbitration of Grievances" as established by the Bureau of Mediation Services.

Choice of Remedy: If as a result of the written Employer response in Step 3, the grievance remains unresolved, and if the grievance involves the discipline of an employee who has completed the required probationary period, the grievance may be appealed either to Step 4 of Article 22 or a procedure such as: Civil Service, Veteran's Preference or Human Rights. If appealed to any procedure other than Step 4 of Article 22, the grievance is not subject to the arbitration procedure as provided in Step 5 of Article 22. The election set forth above shall not apply to claims subject to the jurisdiction of the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. This provision does not extend any time limits set forth in the applicable rules, laws, regulations.

The arbitrator shall be without power to make decisions contrary to or inconsistent with, or modifying or varying in any way the application of laws, rules, or regulations having the force and effect of law. The arbitrator shall submit their decision in writing within thirty (30) calendar days following close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever is later, unless the parties agree to an extension. The decision shall be based solely on the arbitrator's interpretation or application of the express terms of this Agreement and on the facts of the grievance presented. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the Employer, the Union, and the employees. The fee and expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union, provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representative and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record.
- 21.6 If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above, it shall be considered waived. If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limit or any agreed extension thereof, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. If the Employer does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof within the specified time limits, the Union may elect to treat the grievance as denied at the step and immediately appeal the grievance to the next step. The time limit in each step may be extended by mutual written agreement of the Employer and the Union at each step.
