Minnesota Legal Defense Plan Comparison Notes

- All the organizations' legal defense plans require membership in the association.
- MPPOA membership dues per year: $152.00 for groups, $200.00 for individuals and $52.00 for associate members.
- MPPOA LDF offers members 24-hour access to the top criminal defense attorneys in the state of Minnesota.
- MN FOP LDF exclusively uses the Fowler Ditsch law firm.
- MN FOP and MNPEA limit case expenses to a maximum of $5,000. Teamsters limits investigative fees to $5,000 and expert witness fees to $5,000. Case expenses include expert witness fees, transcript fees, appellate fees, private investigator fees, filing fees and miscellaneous costs associated with trial preparation and trial proceedings. A mid-level case averages $70,000 and a high-profile case with felony charges can exceed $400,000.
- MPPOA provides coverage for Essential Services Members (Associate) including dispatchers, corrections officers, firefighters and public safety support professionals.
- Teamsters provides coverage to Essential Service Members, based on contract.
- MPPOA and Teamsters provide coverage for off-duty incidents only if participant is acting within the scope of their employment.
- Departmental disciplinary coverage is not covered by MPPOA because 98% of our members are represented in these matters by their unions, for which they pay dues.
